“ Rest in Peace, Joe hess. You have lived a long life and most of it has been dealing with medical problems. I know you have been thru alot of surgeries, pain, suffering, and worries. I know you were a strong man and you went until you were weak and no longer able to fight. I am glad you are at rest and that you suffer no more, no worries, and free. May you get you wings and fly and be free. You deserve the peace you well deserve. A good man that I am proud to call my Father-in-Law. Until we meet again, May you be at peace.Love you always and will always be in our thoughts. The Cox Family (Rick and Angie Cox) Always and Forever <3 <3 <3

“ I am sad. Uncle joe was a great man and will be loved and missed. My memories of uncle joe was when we were watching Comedy Central and we could not stop laughing at the characters hair changing in every scene . The last memory I have of him is when I went to uncle glen truck to give uncle joe a huge and told him how much I loved him and for always accepting me all these years as part of the Hess family. No maybes he just did accept me and loved me regardless. Rest In Peace uncle joe you had one incredible life. I am forever grateful for the Hess family being there for me and I will never forget uncle joe. Sorry Hess family my condolences for your loss.

Sue looking so sweet and innocent, but when Joe was born she bit his fingers, she threw a hammer in the crib, mom and grandma said she tried to kill him and she always said they lied on her (LOL) Joe would always tease Sue about it, him and those sisters were always so close. Sure do miss those stories from all of them. I know mama taking care of them now.

“ Loved uncle Joe and he loved all his nieces and nephews so much. Will miss his phone calls to Phyllis weekly if not more often. So many great memories with him visiting my mom and his beloved sister Betty BLALOCK (no Y). Even after she passed he was so good about keeping in contact with all of us. We'll miss him and know he'll enjoy his time with his Heavenly family. We know how much he loves us and he knew how much we loved him.

I had a great pleasure of being one of Joe's nieces, I have so many great memories over the years. When mama (Betty) wanted to change something in the house that could include knocking down a wall she call her brother Joe to come and do the project. After she died he would come out visit and stay with me and we have such a good time. I will miss the most is our phone conversations, and the the pass 6 months he could not hard breath or talk but he would make an effort to call me. He fought so hard to live and had such a will power. Now he is at peace and mama got her brother back with her as well as Sue and Janet. Love you Joe, will miss you so much!!!! Phyllis.
