“ Family what a blessing it was to have had the privilage of knowing John.
A true man of God.
He spent so much of his time serving others and now he is safe in the arms of Christ.
This is not goodbye but just until we meet again.
Our prayers are wuith you.

“ Tracy~

I send to you my deepest heartfelt sympathy during this most sad time. I can remember your mom and dad shopping at Roses when we worked there and how kind and friendly they both were with smiles to share with everyone.

May God grant to you peace and comfort and may He fill your heart with the sweetest memories of your dad to help you in the coming days.

Even though your heart is so broken, try to invision the homecoming your dad had and how excited he was when he stepped inside heavens gate and looked around at the splendors of heaven that the Lord had prepared for him and the joy that flooded his spirit when he looked upon his Masters face!

Kepping you and your family close in heart and thoughts.
