“ Jamie,

I know there are no words to ease your pain. But I remember our many talks about our children and I know how much you loved Brent and all the happiness he brought to you. Also remember that you are a very dear friend and any time you need to talk you know where I am.

I am praying for you and the rest of your family.

Love, Sherry

“ I just wanted to say that I am really sorry. Jamie, Tedd, Tommy, Nick, Jasmine, Cienna and Brent's grandparents, I can only begin to imagine what you all are going through! I understand how real the pain is. Brent was one of my best friends..and i will never forget him for the rest of my life. I remember one night Brent got his brand new boots dirty and he "thought" i was mad and I can still hear him saying "Sarah Your my best friend please dont be mad at me, I can't stand it when your mad at me!".. He always wanted everyone to be happy and he couldn't stand for people to be mad at him. He was such a loving person! The sad part is he had so many things goin for him..He just turned 16 May 4th, and he was soo excited bout driving in August he would always say "Sarah we're gonna have so much fun i get my license in august and we're gonna party!" He always loved to have fun. Me and Brent were really close..we talked on the phone alot..for a long time we were together practically every weekend for a long time and if he wasn't w/ me he was w/ the people u usually saw him w/ lately. Me and Brent have so many countless memories that i will never forget. I miss him alot and I know for a fact i'm not the only one. I just want everyone especially his family to know that I'm prayin for everyone..b/c i know Brent had alot of friends..as well as alot of other close ones. He will forever be in our hearts and I know everyday for the rest of my life i will think of him. You was my best friend Brent and I will never forget any of our memories..especially your Rough Neck Hat..you knew how special it was to me! ;) lol..I love you so much and I will never forget you..R.I.P JOHN THOMAS BRENTLEY MEADOWS

“ I am so sorry for the loss. I apologize that i was unable to attend the wake. I knew Brentley from school, when he was in 8th grade i was in 6th. I talked to him a lot and never did i think this would happen. He was such a good kid and was loved by many and disliked by few. Although him and i weren't good friends it shocked me so much. I have cried lots and had to help my friends through this tough time. Monday was, i think, the hardest day ever. Some people couldn't take even coming to school. I basically just wanted to say how sorry i am and that i am praying really hard that God will help us all through this hard time. It is a shame to see him go but we all know that his life in heaven will be so much better then his life on earth. He will be on God's baseball team now. And God's team never loses. I, along with my church family and my family, will be praying for your family and his friends.

With love and prayers

“ Sandy S. sent out a notice to those of us that she has on the class reunion email list and gave us this web site so we could let you know how saddened we are for your loss. Jamie, I think that you would remember me from school and just want you to know that I wish you the strength you'll need at such a very tradgic time. I will pray for strength and faith for you and your family and that he can somehow bring you through this loss.

“ Losing such a young person is very tough. My heart goes out to the family. I had Brentley for band in the 6th grade at Richlands Middle School. I remember his little grin. I remember him as the "little" fella playing the trombone, who could barely reach 6th position on his trombone. He was always a joy to have in class that year! I really wish the family well, and thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Well ive known Brent ever since I first came to middle school, we met the second day and stayed good friends all the way through high school. One thing about Brentley That ill never forget was that no matter where you were Brent was there to, he just popped up out of no where, and had a smile all the time. You just couldnt get mad at him, it was impossible no matter how hard you tried. He was always a caring person, and had a Tremendously positive attitude towards things. Ill Always remeber Brently, And all the great times and great influences he made on all our lifes. It is a Huge loss to us all, and Brentleys Family Will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Jamie, Mrs. Mash, Nick, and all the other friends and family of Brentley. I love you all and I am so, so, sorry. Words cannot express how sorry I am. Know that I am praying for you....praying hard. Brent was always so sweet, kind and polite. I remember when Jason broke his ankles playing football, Brent would always come up with Nick and the other 'older guys' and hang out and try to cheer Jason up. He had the sweetest grin...he was like their little side-kick!! He will be so greatly missed. Nick please hang on, We all love you so much (more than you know). God loves you too. We are all praying for you. Love, Renee

“ May God be with your entire family and also the families of the other children in the wreck, in this, the most grievous suffering anyone could ever endure. Brent's life was obviously filled with happiness and love of life--you are a wonderful parent to have given him these qualities! May our loving Father comfort you, carry you when necessary, and give you peace in the days, weeks, months, and years to come.

“ Jamie,

Just want you to know that you and your family are in my prayers and thoughts. Take the hand of our precious Lord and allow him to lead you. He will get you and yours through this. I realize that your, and your families' lives are forever changed. Try, really hard, to remember the happy, good times - The laughter that Brent brought to you all ! If I can do anything - even it it's just to listen, I'm only a telephone call away. You've always been one of my favorites, Jamie ! With Love, Sympathy, and Sincereity, Your Friend, Karen

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know there is nothing I can say to make the pain go away... so I will share my memories instead. Brentley always made me smile. I don't ever recall a time when I didn't see him smiling. He would be up entertaining the other kids and I couldn't ever get mad at him. I would try to be stern but he always had a way of making me laugh instead. I remember him hiding under my desk and the class laughing so hard while I tried to figure out what was going on. He always had a ton of friends and he was forever making us laugh. The kids that year decided to call their team "The Cows." It led to endless jokes and lots of smiles. It was my first class, "my cows." They will always have a special place in my heart and I will always appreciate how good they were to me. I saw him this year, so tall he seemed to tower over me...and he was smiling.... as I will always remember him.

“ hey! i still can't believe that your gone! and the main reason is because i dont want to even think about it! you were one of those people who i could always count on to put a smile on my face and i knew i could always trust you with anything! i know you didnt know it or maybe you did but i considered you one of my closest "guy" friends! and i just didnt think you would be gone so quick! you meant sooo much to me and i will never forget all our memories! like you being blind...my sunglasses...hugs...airport road lol...us singing "bounce" and all our many talks! And just last friday i rememeber us talking about our plans for the weekend, we never even thought something like this would ever happen! you were such a great person, always smiling no matter what was going on! i know your in a better place now, but we all still want you here! you had so much to live for like prom, graduation, falling in love, kids, just soo much! I wonder why this happened to such a special person that so many people cared about but nothing i can say or do will bring you back! I miss you soo much! I hope you can see all of us and see how much we truly love and miss you! I am still just waiting for you to come walking into 1st period but i know your not going to! i will never get to see your face or you smiling at me again~! I LOVE YOU JOHN THOMAS BRENTLEY MEADOWS...ALWAYS AND FOREVER!~ And nick i have had some good memoried with you too, if there is anything you need to talk about or anything you want let me know! i love you!always!

“ I too lost someone close almost a year ago this august. He was 22 years old and was the best person i have ever known. His name was Brandon Hoyt and he was quite possibly my best freind. I am 22 now as well, and while its still hard to understand why some people are taken from us so early, It just lets us know that life is precious and that we can't, especially you and I, take tommorrow for granted. So...while I can offer no fond memmories of your son, I did not know him, just read about him from a freind of his' webpage <http://02.padday.com/>, I can say that I offer my condolences and that I wish you and your family and freinds the best tommorrow you can hope for.

- God is with us, and that gives us hope...May you experience all there is for you to experience in good company--
