

John Kelly Lamie

October 14, 1936 - November 1, 2018

John Kelly Lamie, age 82, of Jewell Valley, Virginia, passed away Thursday, November 1, 2018 at his home following a long illness.

He was born in Bartley, West Virginia on October 14, 1936 to John David and Mattie Elizabeth Smith Lamie.

Jay, as everyone knew him, was a retired auto worker from Ford Motor Company in Cleveland, Ohio. His passion in life was serving God. He was a minister of the gospel for 69 years, beginning when he was 13 years of age. He was an ordained minister of the Independent Church of the Living God and worked tirelessly at the Community Church of the Living God at Three Forks, WV. He has evangelized throughout the WV and VA areas for many years and was of the Pentecostal Holiness Faith.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two children, Eddie Duane Lamie and Sandra Lynn Lamie; one grandchild, Nicole Lamie; three brothers, Charlie, Kadel, and Archie Lamie; and ten sisters, Mabel Parsons, Leona Stanley, Louise Lane, Glayds Hagy, Lettie Smith, Betty Kennedy, Daisy Sweeny, Billie Kennedy, Nadine Sexton, and a twin sister, Eva Justice.

Survivors are:

His Wife of 60 years: Beulah Lee Adams Lamie

Son: Jeffrey Glenn Lamie and wife, Angela of Claypool Hill, Virginia

Daughters:

Treva Darlene Meadows of Garden Creek, Virginia

Julie Lamie Clifton and husband, Timothy of Jewell Valley, Virginia

Six Grandsons: Wayne Tolliver, Malik Lamie, T.J. Rife, Jamey Hill, Travis Hill, and Hunter Clifton

“ I am very sorry to hear about Jay passing away. He and I preached a service together at the church in Warriormine Hollow in the early 70s. He was a fine Christian man and I know he is enjoying his reward in Heaven. I pray God will bless and comfort the family.
