“ I went to Heritage Hall on January 10. Johnny was asleep but I woke him and talked to him for a few minutes. I have a lifetime of precious family memories of trips to my Aunt Maude Meade's house, she was my grandmother Minnie Brown's sister. My mother was Mayola Cole, Johnny's first cousin. They were always close. Reunions were anticipated for an entire year, as everyone got older, that was the one time of year we could count on seeing Johnny and the other family members. Such fun. I love you all and pray God's strength and blessing for you. Love Sandra and Ron
