

Jonathan Allen Farmer

November 12, 1986 - April 13, 2020

Jonathan Allen Farmer age 33 of Canebrake, West Virginia was surrounded by his loving family as he drew his last breath here on this earth on April, 13, 2020 at his home following a lengthy illness.

He was born November 12, 1986 in Bluefield, West Virginia and was the son of Kimberly Kennedy Farmer Hicks and his step father, David Lee Hicks of Canebrake, WV. Father, Johnny Farmer of Berwind, WV.

Jonathan was a graduate of Big Creek High School, Class of 2005. At the age of 18, he was underground in the coal mines, working for a living. He worked for many years as a coal miner for several mines in and around Berwind, Caretta and Coalwood, West Virginia before becoming paralyzed. He may have been confined to a wheelchair, but he never let it slow him down. He enjoyed going hunting, fishing, riding 4-wheelers and motorcycles, attending car races and was a devoted fan of Monday night WWE Raw. Jonathan was a gifted musician and enjoyed playing his guitar, allowing the soothing music to engulf his spirit and soul. He was well known for his boisterous spirit and playful attitude. He was a very social person and loved spending time with his family and friends. He was of the Pentecostal faith and was a lifetime resident of the Canebreak area.

He was preceded in death by his infant sister, Regina Marie Farmer.

Those who remain to carry on his spirit, in addition to his parents are his:

Sons, Braden Allen Farmer of Canebrake, WV and Jaden Lee Farmer of Coalwood, WV; sister, April Farmer Lawrence and husband, P.J. of Caretta, WV. He loved being Uncle J to his niece Faith Lawrence and his nephew Jeremiah Lawrence.

With the current Covid-19 restrictions, the family will have a private visitation with a Graveside service on Monday, April 20, 2020 at the Grandview Memory Gardens in Bluefield, Virginia with .Pastor Chris White officiating. Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Tazewell, VA is serving the family of Mr. Farmer and those wishing to express sympathy online may do so at www.hurstscottfuneralhomes.com.
