“ Hate to hear this. Jon was so much and such a fun guy to be around. I remember playing football with Jon and his brothers and the twins when I was younger. Ran into Jon a few times when he would come to Tazewell. Always had something funny to say he was a good dude!
Rest easy my dude

“ Leigh my sister, I love you more than you will ever know. You were the sister I never had and Rick you were and still are like a father to me. Our lives will never be the same. Jon shined so bright with his amazing smile, sneaky grins, and radiant laughter that would fill every heart he come in contact with. I will never forget him and the memories I have. My heart is broken for you Leigh in ways I can never put into words. I never imagined life would take us to this day that you say “see you soon” to your first born son. May God send people into you and your sons lives to assist you to cope through the darkest days ahead! No words can be spoken to comfort you and as a mother myself I know nothing will ever make it better. Trust in God that he will soon shift your tears to laughter when you think of Jon and the memories only you as a mother shall ever have. I love you my sister
