“ My Brother, You and I have had many a chat over the years. You have led me out of the darkness and given me a reason to laugh. I tried to return the favor and I am glad that we finally got to meet and hug and enjoy some time in person. I will never forget those days. You have been a testament to courage and persistence and faith. I am privileged and honoured to have known you and will forever remember our time together. Your concern over my well being when i know what you were going through was humbling and shows the true character that you possessed. I feel like i should weep for you my Brother but i know that you are at peace and out of pain and that helps me deal with the loss. Rest well Brother.
