“ I really don't know what to say. I am so sorry for the loss of this precious young man. I got to know him for just a short time, but I am thankful for the time I did know him. He was kind, mannerly, sweet-natured, with a wonderful sense of humour, I am sure all that knew him loved him. I am deeply hurt and sorry for your loss. I will be praying for strength for all of you...Love, Renee (Robin's Mom)

“ Shirley, Jerry and family,
Words just can't express the sadness and hurt that we feel because of your great loss. The only thing that we can tell you is that we are praying for you and your family during this very difficult time. We are asking God to give you a special comfort and strength for each day. Please take comfort in the prayers and thoughts of the many friends who are praying for you.

“ Joe was a really good person. Its hard to believe that bad things happen to good people. He was always a good friend and put others first. He wanted everyone to have a good time and when he thought someone was upset or down he would always try to help them. He was truly a great person and i'll never forget you Joe but atleast you are in a better place now with no worries and i know in my heart you are as happy as ever now.. and to the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ I guess there are just some things that never make sense. A person like Joe is someone that you could or would never want to forget. From late summer nights at the mall and Joe's pizzeria, I have to say it was the best summer of my life. I love you Joe, I really do and your memory will never be forgotten. You are one of the greatest men I ever knew! Rest in piece Joe!
