“ Dotson was such a genuinely wonderful man. I can't believe he's really gone but I know that's how everyone is feeling. I don't know anyone who knew him that didn't love him. I loved hearing him talk about his kids; his face just lit up. I have never seen a more loving father in my life. It has been a long while since I last saw him but I've never been able to think of him without seeing his smiling face. It's what I see now as I write this and I feel how much he'll be missed by everyone that knew him.

“ To the Family; When God calls his children home, we sometimes do not understand the timing or his reasons. But rest assured his plans are so grand that they far outweigh what we could even imagine. God bless your family while you sort through your feelings and begin to heal. I work for Wa-mart as well, but in Bluefield. I know that God will comfort you and give you strength to push forward.

“ To the family of Josh Dotson; We were so sorry to hear of Josh's passing. I have many wonderful memories of Josh. My favorite is helping with his Wedding. What a wonderful day that was, Bill and I was still at the church at 3 am... I kept looking out the door, and each time there was 2 or 3 more inches of snow..I was afraid nobody would be able to attend, but friends and family battled a storm, a blizzard to share that day with them. That showed me just how many people loved Josh and Beckie. Memories like these will live FOREVER in the hearts of those who loves Josh. Now there is another storm that friends and family have to battle. Once again we will pull together to be with you and help you all we can.. I pray that through the darkness of this storm, their will be light. Through the sadness, their will be peace. GOD will take care of you... Remember God gives us Rainbows after the storm...the rainbows he left are in Josh's two beautiful children..
