“ My condolences to the family of my cousin Joyce. Words can't describe the truly good soul that Joyce was. She never had a bad word to say about anyone. I enjoyed so much to see her at the family reunions. She always met you with a beautiful smile and I know in my heart that Heaven was waiting for that beautiful soul to grace those doors. My tears are joyful tears that Heaven just got brighter. With Love and admiration. Your cousin, Rita

“Joyce, I met you when we were both teenagers. I remember going with you to your parents house. Also remember when you married David, seeing you all the time when you worked at Acme where we shopped, and that beautiful smile you had when we met anywhere. You are loved by so many and will be greatly missed.
