“ Good Morning Brittany. It was good to talk to you last night. There is not a moment that you and your family are not in my thoughts. I will see you Thursday. In days to come I hope that these words will give you comfort. I cannot be there and hold you but you are ever present in my thoughts.

“ Brittany and Mark, I want you both to know how much Gary, Britney, Josh, and I love you both. Kenyen had become such a special part of all of our lives, and I feel so blessed to have had him here with us. I know that no one knows the depth of sorrow and grief that you are both feeling. Always know that we are here for both of you for anything you need. Kenyen was the light and laughter that filled this house, now it is so empty. He was taken from all of us far too soon, but he went straight to God's arms. He will always be a guardian angel to us all. No words can bring you peace right now, but know that you are both loved and that I hope that our presence is a comfort to both of you. You are always in my heart, and I will always be there for you. Kenyen brought me so much joy and I loved him so much. He took a piece of my heart with him. I feel honored that you both allowed me to share in his life, and to help you with him. I am just so sorry that when he needed me the most, there was nothing that I could do that was enough. I wish that I could have done so much more. We love you and will be there for you to lean on as long as you need us.....I love you Kenyen.....may you rest in peace and keep watch over us all.

“ Brittany and Mark, I am so sorry you have lost your little angel. He is truly an angel now, cradled in the arms of Jesus. I don't have any set ideas of what Heaven is like, but I believe the promises of Jesus that there is no sorrow or tears there. Whatever is the perfect situation for your little one is - is exactly what has been provided for him in Heaven. The moment he left you he was present with God; there was not a second there that he was not taken care of.

I am so sorry that you have had to say goodbye so soon Brittany; always know that you are in my prayers. I know your sorrow is so deep it can't be touched by another human being; we only have the power to ease it with our presence. Know that I am here and will be glad to do anything I can do to help you.

I will see you Thursday.
