“ Patricia and Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. My daughter, Charity, rode the bus with Kevin, and Heather Whalen, my niece, was a class mate. They are both deeply hurt. Last night Charity told me that she thought Kevin was the nicest boy she had ever met.

You are in our prayers!

“ There are no words satisfactory enough to express how much my heart goes out to Kevin's family. To say i could only imagine to loose my child, would be an insult. My heart is broken for you.
with sincere sympathy.

“ Kevin & Patricia:
My heart aches so bad for both of you and also Cody. Patricia, I know you from work and through our children and you are a very special lady. It was so obvious to see how close you and Kevin were with your children. Only God knows why these things happen and I know that he has made heaven even brighter by taking Kevin with him. No words could ever express my sympathy but just know that your family is in the hearts and prayers of all that knew your family.

“ I really hate that kevin is gone. I remember the frist time we ever talked. we was talking about Peyton Manning. He has brought alot of joy in to my life. He will never be forgotten and will always have a place in my heart. He is a real good friend and preson. his family is so lucky to have a total joy in their life. In band class every time that I looked back he always had a smile. I will never foget that smile. So Kevin R.I.P I love you and will miss you alot

“ There are no words that can express the loss that you feel. Only God's grace and love can help you through your healing process. The tears you shed are for your loved one. Cry until you can't cry no more; they are beautiful tears. We all cry with you.

God bless and comfort your family,

“ My heart is so heavy with grief knowing the pain all of you are feeling. Please know Kevin and all of you are loved. Kevin has touched many lives in a good way. Knowing he is in heaven does not bring comfort right now, but "joy comes in the morning!" God bless and keep you. May you have the strength to endure the next few days and months ahead. We, at Cedar Bluff Elementary, love all of you.

“ We have been honored in knowing Kevin and his love of the outdoors. Kevin's politeness and good nature will always be remembered by those who knew him. Todd and Kevin always shared hunting stories / pictures and talked about the upcoming season. Todd has many great memories and wonderful praises of his character - as I know other students do. There are no words to express the loss of Kevin at the age of fourteen and we as parents can't understand this tragedy. Please know we loved Kevin and our prayers are with Cody and the entire family during this most difficult time.

“ Patricia,

I didn't have the privilege of meeting Kevin, but I did get to know Cody while he and Ricky stayed with Lucy and Lindy. Kevin had to be a special person, because you are special. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I know that God will be your strength and comfort and your guidance in the days ahead.

“ Dear Stallard family,
Hunter and Kevin were friends through preschool, CBES, and RMS. I never remember seeing Kevin and not seeing that big smile. When I think of him I still see the little curly head baby going to preschool. We are praying for you daily, sometimes hourly, that you will find the strength to make it through. All of Kevins classmates say "he was the nicest person, he never had a mean thing to say". What a wonderful way to be remembered. Teri Brown

“ Patricia, Kevin and family,

My heart crushed when I heard the news. I just can't imagine how you felt.

I know God had a purpose. I'm sure it was Heaven's gain and little Kevin's early friends loss.

Patricia, I will never forget your sweet personality and kindness to our customers when we worked together at the Bank several years ago.

You and your family will be in our thoughts and prayers continuously.

“ Dear Patricia and Kevin and Cody,
I am soooo sorry for your loss we were good buds! Kevin was my good buddy we roomed together on the 8th grade field trip and we had so much fun! He didnt even want to go to sleep he said he got like 1 hour of sleep that night. I am so glad we roomed together. I miss him so much we also had art together, he would always talk about hunting, raising goats, and raising dogs. I still remember talking to you all on Tuesday at the little league ballgame. It feels like yesterday. You are in my prayers

I love you all.

“ I would just like to send my condolences to your family in your loss. As parents my husband and I have lost a son at the age of 17 so we have been where you are now. Our thoughts & prayers go out for you. Also my nephew Brian Yates was big buddies with your son and really loved him. So I just wanted you to know we care too. May God give you peace as He has us and help you though the valleys to come. It has been 10 years for us and we still hurt but we know we will see our son again one day. May God bless you all.

“ My heart goes out to your family. We talked so much about our boys each time you came into Darrells that I feel as if I am grieving with you rather than for you. I wanted to speak to you when I saw you at work Sunday morning but everything I could think of to say just seemed so inadequate. However, I wanted to say something rather than nothing to let you know that although there is nothing I can do to ease your pain, I would do anything I could to help. You are in everyones thoughts and prayers.
