“ 15 years of friendship. Lost for a while then regained only to be lost again. I love you, Kristy. The days and nights spent at Kayas, the morning of September 11th where we sat round eyed and open mouthed while watching the twin towers burning. The countless moments spent together in the middle of the night and the wee early moments of the days after we got off work. Do you remember Bills outside of the Red Apple? You got me a job there and it was grand. I have hundreds of pictures of our time together. Remember hempfest? And the times we went to Seattle just because? And "Craft time at Kristys"? I will never forget. I may not be so loud voiced or ever present. I may not be so involved with the happenings of others... but you touched my heart and I love you still. No matter my attendance levels nor my willingness to commune. You have always had a special place in my heart. I miss you. There is a place in my heart specifically dedicated to you, to your memory and to our friendship. I loved you then, I love you now, I love you always.

“ my sister was a loving and careing person who was always there for anyone at anytime.no matter what time of the day it was I could always call and talk to her.i will never forget her camero with the unicorn on the hood.decorating the house with Christmas lights together,going to the movies and putt putt golf.she took me to zoo lights for the first time when I was a young kid.that was the first time I had ever seen purple Christmas lights and I will never forget her and all the good times we had together.I miss with all my heart and I am so sorry the family was not allowed to honor your final wishes or be there to say good bye.we all love so much sis.
