“ Ed, Joyce family, I am so sorry for your loss, Larry and I became friends when he moved beside me 24 years ago. We never had a cross word or was mad at each other. I would cook and share food with him and he did the same for me. Larry would call and ask why I hadn't been over to see him if I was busy, so then I would go see him and we would talk about different things, life in general, our love for jewelry, cooking, church, gospel singing, or something he wanted me to place an order for that he wanted. Most of all we laughed and had a great time, he would always invite me to come back when I got ready to leave. I will miss him, but I find comfort in knowing he is not suffering to breathe with having to wear oxygen anymore.
