“ I m so sorry for the loss of sweet Laura, she was a very special lady to many. She always had a beautiful smile to match her warm and loving eyes and love for others. She has made her journey to her Heavenly Home, surrounded by her Master, her family and friends that are with her walking the streets of gold, and resting by the crystal sea of life. We can't even imagine what beauty she is in the presences of. Sing with the angels Lura. God bless each of you during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
