“ *Lavada,
You were definitely one of a kind. I never knew a more loving and devoted mother. No matter what, you were always there for us over the past 28 years. Family always came first and I am like you in that way. I know we didn't always agree on everything but I have always loved being your daughter-in-law, and am thankful for having been part of your family. Our boys loved you and are lucky to have had you as there MawMaw. You will surely be missed.*

“ Mamaw, I have went through an array of emotions the last several days. We have so many wonderful memories of you and the fun times we had growing up. You were the center of that, you before anyone else would protect us and keep us in line (although in your eyes we were angels and could do no wrong). So much of who you were made me who I am today. Strong willed would be an understatement. You always worked so hard taking care of your family as well as a caregiver for so many others. We are at peace knowing you are now our angel and you are no longer suffering and worrying, you are now rejoicing with those who went before us. I love you and will miss you always! ”
