

Lawrence Strouth

January 17, 1932 - April 28, 2007

Mr. Lawrence Ira Strouth, age 75 of the Coalden/Seabord area of Richlands, Virginia, passed away Saturday, April 28, 2007 in a local area hospital following a lengthy illness. He was born in Squire, West Virginia, he was the son of the late Stallard and Katherine Mae Sawyers Strouth. Lawrence was a graduate of the 1951 Class of Richlands High School, was a former coal mine owner, a founder of the Local UMWA and later owned and operated his own garage which his son now manages. He was an avid outdoorsman who had a passion for hunting, fishing and riding 4-wheelers. He was a perfectionist when it came to his garden and mowing his grass, and no matter how hard they tried, no one could quiet master his style. He was a life time resident of the area and will be missed by all who knew and loved him. In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by one sister, Freda Torres and a half-brother Wade Joyce. Those who survive him are: His loving wife of 53 years, Betty Strouth of the Coalden area of Richlands, Virginia Daughter, Christine Lee and husband Morris of Cedar Bluff, Virginia Son, David Strouth and wife Mary of Richlands, Virginia Sister, Lucille Jones of Ohio The joy of his life was his granddaughter, Kayla Strouth Funeral services for Lawrence Ira Strouth will be held Tuesday, May 1, 2007 at 2:00 pm at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia with the Rev. Bruce Mitchell officiating. Interment will follow at the Greenhills Memory Gardens in Claypool Hill, Virginia. Pallbearers will be Rick Brown, Rick Woods, Danny Strouth, Phillip Keen, Stanley Mitchell and Joey Christian. Honorary Pallbearers will be Phill Shaw,

Jim Young, John Young, Stuart Young, Eugene Harrison, Carl Christian, James Nelson and Armster Sparks. Friends may call Monday evening from 6-9 pm at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia.
