“ May those beautiful yesterdays always remain in your heart, and your sorrow gently fade away. May you find strength in your faith, comfort in God's love, and peace in knowing your friends are praying for you. May thoughts of all your mother meant -Of love she gave, of good times spent -Bring you peace and comfort, too, And keep your mother close to you. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ My condolences. May you find hope in the words of the Lord at John 11:25, "Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Take comfort in each other and in your memories. Let others help.

“ May God be with you and give you comfort during this time of loss. I enjoyed working with Suzie. She was the one to hire me at Walmart, My sister was working there and told Suzie i needed a job because I sleep too much. Next thing I knew Suzie was calling me. I remember her making my name badge and asking what i wanted on it I told her kay and she hands me my name badge and it had "K"on it. She said "well, thats what you said." haha.. She was one of a kind and it's not going to be the same without her. We always enjoyed talking about our grandchildren She was so very proud of them and her children. I am going to miss her she was a very special lady....
