“ Oh how I loved Lillian. We lived across the street but at times I would hear her laughter and it brought a big smile to my face. On the other hand Gearld used to scare me to death if he was mowing his front yard with his rider. I just kept thinking “one of these days”. They were both wonderful people. Prayers for all the family .

“ *Family
I meet Lillian at her yard sale she was such an amazing lady,
Her love for her Lord ,family and others was very evident.
She was kind in helping with clothing and household items for our Church mission at Ivy Spring Baptist.
I'm so thankful God allowed our paths to cross.
You are in my prayers
