“ My hearts go to her family loss. My mom always thought the world of her. Linda go get your wings and no more pain

Judy Shires - April 14, 2019 at 06:49 PM

“ I have so many loving memories of Mrs. Byrd. She was a lady of grace and compassion. She was a pillar of our little community and will be greatly missed. When diagnosed with cancer, she called one day for some information. I took her tons of information, small gifts we had given out to our Survivors, and a Survivor t-shirt. She told me she hadn't survived it yet. I told her she already had survived - she survived the diagnosis. She laughed and from that day on, she said she was a Survivor in more ways than one. It was a pleasure to know this little lady. She gave such joy to all those who knew her. Rest well, Mrs. Byrd! Your journey is over, the battle was hard fought, and the victory was gained. Fly high and enjoy Heaven. If there's ever been a lady who earned her wings while on this earth, it was you! Thank you for being the inspiration you were, the friend you've always been, and the ray of sunshine you always had for anyone you'd meet. You will be missed and you were loved by so many. Our sincerest condolences to Wanda and Sherry and your families. With love, hugs, and prayers,
