“ Was so saddened to hear of Linda's death, I knew she had been sick but didn't know she was so close to the end. Linda and I were school friends and she was always so humble and kind. Please accept my deepest sympathy, may God comfort your heart now and in the days ahead. Love and Prayers, Judy Peak VanDyke

So very sorry to read of Linda's passing. I'd lost touch with her sometime before her moving from Jewell Ridge. I first became acquainted with Linda when she worked in a book keeping office that was hired by our company. She was always very nice and polite. I pray God will give her children the comfort and strength to get thru her passing.
