Linda and i (Jim Byrd) started first grade in the one room school house on Road Ridge in the year 1947-1948 school year. we were very close friends all through school and remanded good friends until i left for the Army in 1960. saw her each time i was able to return home then lost track after she married. she was a great person so full of life. She will be missed. My prayers for her family and friends.
