“ My sweet Linda Faye and I have been friends since about 12 yrs old. Our families entwined after we married and had children. She has always been there. A special feeling of comfort every time we talked. Always living away from each other never interfered with our love and friendship. She knew me and i knew her. No pretense! You will always be with me dear friend and your sweet family will forever be in my prayers and thoughts as well.

“ Bob & Faye Hackworth were dear friends of mine & my husband. We spent many many evenings at the Hungry Mother Campground in Marion, VA just talking, laughing & watching the people. Faye & I became the best of friends. We had to make our rounds shopping & eating in Bluefield, Bristol, Kingsport & Johnson City. We went somewhere every Saturday unless the snow was too deep. After we lost our husbands we became even closer talking way into the morning hours - sometimes she would go to sleep while we were talking and she would just laugh. No one knows how it hurts to give her up. I love you Faye and always will. All my love to her wonderful family that seemed like my family. I wish I could be with you all during this heart breaking time. My heart & my thoughts will be with you all always.
