“ How sad I am to read of Lisa's passing. She was a precious young woman--not surprisingly since she was a child of Roy and Sandy. My heart is sad for her family but know that Roy and Sandy are rejoicing that she is with them in heaven. God bless all of you today and every day.

“ Sam and Jillian,
As I said before Lisa did not lose her battle with this cancer she overcame it and went on to receive her reward for her strength, courage and her dignity. I am proud of how she handled herself knowing what the outcome would be. I think her faith and trust in God got her through this and she with all the love she had tried to prepare you and her friends for this time of her life. There is nothing to say to make it easier but I will say this. Your love she took with her and her love she left with you.
Love you both,
Joan and Harold

“ What an honor to have such a wonderful friend in our lives...Lisa showed me that HUMOR is important that laughter is medicine so always keep it in your life, she showed me FAMILY is the most important thing ever and to love everyday as if it's your last, she showed COURAGE and took her illness in stride and always found simple joy in every adversity, and one of the most powerful things she showed was FAITH that if you have faith in God nothing is impossible...she is a inspiration and her whole life was a testimony. Peace & Love always my precious friend. You will always live in our hearts and be apart of our family. Sammy and Jillian we love you guys and will wlays be here for you and praying for you. Love you bunches.

“ My sincere sympathy and prayers are with you. I will always have fond memories of working with Lisa in the Cedar Bluff PTA and OM teams. She had so much energy and enthusiam about her it was a joy to work with her. It was also very obvious that Sam and Jillian were the light of her life.

She was so kind to call me with encouragement when I was first diagnosed with cancer. She will be missed.

Cherish the memories of the good times with her and know that she is no longer sick and is an angel looking down on all of us.
