“ Everyone that ever met Lisa was touched by her sweet smile and kind heart. I am so blessed to have been able to call her my stepmom. Everyone's lives will now be a little darker after the loss of this incredible woman. She was a very special woman that loved me unconditionally from the moment she met me. She saw the best in everyone. We all know that she is shining so brightly in heaven and pain free but the loss of this great woman will be felt deeply for everyone for the rest of our lives. We miss you so much and love you Lisa. I hope you are having fun decorating heaven and wearing your wings.

“ Prayers, hugs and love to all of Lisa's family. She was such a sweet, kind, caring person, with beauty that shown from the inside out. I fondly remember all our wonderful times through Elementary, Jr High and High School. She will be missed by many. May you find strength in knowing that Lisa is now in the presence of the Lord and may God's ever sweet presence surround you, comfort you and give you strength through the days ahead. Her spirit will forever live in your heart and may the sweet memories you have comfort you when you need it most.
