“ May God give you peace that surpasses all understanding as you grieve the lost of your sister. As you are torn between the celebration of the homegoing of your love one and the reality of your personal lost, remember that "Jesus wept." So allow yourself the freedom to not only celebrate that she is where we all hope to be one day, with out heavenly Father, but allow yourself the freedom to shed some tears as you grieve your personal lost. My prayers are with you and your family. Call me if you need anything.

“ I am so sorry to here of your loss. Miss Pugh was my and my husbands 4th grade teacher. We always thought a lot of her. She will be missed. I have a lot of fond memories of the old Red Ash School and the teachers. Not many of them left. Miss Pugh always remembered us every time we ran in to her. I hadn't seen her is several year, but I thought of her every time I pass the place where she lived.

“ Luanne was a wonderful, loving, caring and devoted friend to my Mom, Maggie Hughes, and to me. She was an excellent educator who devoted her life to guiding children toward the future. She was the kindest person I have ever met, along with her Mother, and had a very huge heart. I am saddened to hear of this news but know that she is greeted in Heaven with loving arms. My deepest sympathy to the family. May God Bless each of you during this difficult time.
