“ Mom was a friend to all and was loved by all. She had many trials in her life, but never complained. She used to tease us kids all that she loved each of us the most. While she was in Johns Hopkins with an aneurysm, we found that she had told each of us we were her favorite. We had a good laugh. She was our rock and we will sorely miss her. I enjoyed spending the last year with her and know that we will see her again. Love you Lucy goosey
