“ I have known Mrs Turner since I was a child. My mother used to go to Riverside Fashions to shop and brought me along with her. She was a jovial lady with a lot of love for her business and her family. May God Bless and keep her family and friends of whom there were many. My heart goes out to one and all.

“ Mrs. Turner will always hold a special place in my heart. She was one of my first employers and I learned a great many of life's lessons from her. She was a wonderful lady and I will miss her. My condolences to her family and to her friend, Dorothy Kinder, who so faithfully took care of her all these years.
