

Luther Peery

February 10, 1917 - April 18, 2006

Luther C. Peery, 89 of Palm City, FL for 28 years, died at home in an accident on April 18. He was born in Jackson Ohio on February 10, 1917 to the late Roy and Clara Peery. He grew up in Tazewell, VA with his brother Robert and Sisters Lois Lowery and Carol Courtney. He graduated from Virginia Polytechnic Institute, M.S. in Chemical Engineering in 1939. He began his 38 year career with E.I. DuPont de Nemours working in the new field of fluorine engineering where he was co-designer of the plutonium pilot plant at Hanford in the Manhattan Project during WWII, and continued to advance the field in subsequent years at DuPont. He was an outdoorsman who hiked and fished most of the national parks, and an avid seaman who owned his first boat in the 50s, which influenced his choice of residence in Palm City. He was preceded in death by his wife, Grace Goodwin Peery. Survivors include: His sister-in-law; Frances Peery Four nephews, and three nieces
