“ Billie and Dewey, I am mourning with you. There are so many memories that we shared that words can not say. Uncle Luther was more like a brother to us because Mom and Dad treated him just like he was. I can't think of any major event in our lives that you all were not involved in. He was always there to help us in any situation- good or bad. As kids, he taught us many things, " Like, I would learn to turn loose the ski-ropes." He and Aunt Betty gave us the opportunities to go places that we would have never gotten to go. Movies, Lake, Camping, Picnics, and so many more. Your Family has been a Blessing to us. May God give you all the strength to help you through the loss. Our Love and Prayers are with you.
