“ We were very sorry to learn of Lynwood's death. When I was a high school freshman and he a senior at Richlands High, he and I were friends as well as cousins. My family lived next door to his for a short time. Another cousin, Gerald Davis, went to school with Lynwood and he and his wife send their condolences also.

“ Beth and family, Im so sorry for your loss, I met your Dad at the Physical Therapy at claypool hill, I really enjoyed talking to him, while talking to him , seemed like I knew him all my life, I could tell then he was a very good and proud man.. It was a honor to have met and talk to him, even though it was for a short time.. You were and always will be a great daughter to him, may God bless you and your family, during this time of sorrow...My wife Leanna was once in the family, married to Richard for a short time. She met him a few time's , and was very impressed with his kindness and conversation , honored to have met him and had high regards for serving our country, in Korea as Leanna's Dad did...May God watch over you and your family always, and knowing you will see him again oneday....

“ I grew up near Lynwood. He was always a good friend and I have many fond memories of him as we grew up. He was a good honest man. I last saw him at the Gateway Drug Store eating at the counter.

Sorry we were unable to attend the funeral.
