“ Irene, Carol and Kay
My deepest condolences on the death of your dear sweet husband and father. Mack's passing would be difficult regardless but under the circumstances I'm sure the shock just compounds your heartbreak. The worst thing about being so far away is being unable to be with friends and loved ones during difficult times such as this. Rest assured that my thoughts and prayers have been with you since I learned of this tragedy. I will always remember all of our good times together. pl
