“ Oh dear god. I just found out about Gaynell. My heart is so broken. Tears falling. Growing up she was my best sister and friend. Was like my second home. Gaynell. I guess we will have to wait to have dinner and coffee in heaven now. Living so far. From each other I did not get that chance. I am going to miss you so very much. You left to early. I still can't believe that you have gone home. Gaynell. I will always love you and miss you more than anything. May God be with children husband family and all friends. To all our good times we spent growing up. I miss you. Is so hard to take in. You are in no more pain. Brenda. Della children. God be with you all
