“ Margo was at my house in TN in January we sat down and had just talked about EVERYTHING and it felt so good to be able to say and talk about things that needed to be resolved for years. We planned on her coming down here this summer to use her "Green Thumb", even though she rubbed off on me a little I still needed her extra help because that was her specialty and we loved doing the flower gardens on Dial Rock Rd. and Tazewell Ave, we I was at home, together. She didn't even realize how much those little things meant to me until recently and when I told her, her face just glowed and she said "really" I said yes and she just hugged me and started crying. I miss you dearly!!! I Love You Margo!!!

“ I would like to share a funny memory I have of Margo . She came to my house one day and ask me if I would go to the gravel quarry with her. I ask her why and she said she needed a load of gravel for the driveway. I ask her what are we going to haul the gravel in and she said I think they can load it in the back of her Chevett. That might not be spelled correctly but it was a little car with a hatch back . After I started laughing , then she realized it would not work we both had a good laugh.
