“ Johnny Jr. and Wade. I want you to know I am thinking of you. I am sorry I couldn't make it in for Margie funeral. I loved her so much and have so many memories of her and your dad. I remember one Sunday morning she came to mamaws and I had a long sleeve dress on and it summer and mamaw was fussing at me to take that dress and Margie told mamaw to leave that baby alone. She was always like that. I love you both very much

“ Margie was a very special aunt to me and my children, Tara and Brandon. I truly believe she is one of the reasons my kids grew up to be the people they are today. She loved them like they were her own and taught them Christian values. Margie cared for my children when they were little while I worked as a nurse on long 12 hour shifts. When Margie came to care for them, I knew they were in the best hands possible. Brandon would go to her as soon as she walked in the door and say "Hold me, get me, carry me" with his arms stretched out to her and she would pick him up and placed him on her hip and hold him. I swear when I got home 13 hours later she was still holding him. When she would leave, they would cry for her. I know where our Margie is now and what a peace that brings to you. We loved Margie so very much and we will see her again. Margie, tell Mamaw and Papaw, Snookie and mommy (Bootsie) that we love them.
Love Lisa, Terry, Tara and Brandon.

We will miss Margie. She loved my boys to the moon and back. She was there for Cody's birth and helped to look after him, his first two years of life. Cody and Margie had a strong bond. Cody always asked when Margie was coming so they could play. He wanted to see her one more time, but that wasn't on God's timetable. Now he will have great memories of who she was. Although, she was not strong enough to help with Eason, she loved him just as much and looked forward to seeing him. Heaven gained a true angel and she will be sorely missed here on earth. I wouldn't ask her to come back for anything, but to remember, one day we will meet again on the other side of Jordan. I lit a blue candle (for my boys) in memory of Margie.

“ I am truly heart broken to hear of My Margie's passing. I know that is selfish but I loved her so dearly. She was my best friend, my cousin but most of all like a MOTHER to me. She was in every sense a Grandmother to my Grandchildren. Their little heart are broken and sad today after receiving the news. I know how hard this is for you boys for I to have walked in your shoes. I take refuge in the fact that she now walks the streets of gold, with a crown filled with stones, no more sickness and pain. As a human we are sometimes selfish and want to keep them with us forever, but we realize this was God's plan. She is at peace now. I am sure there is a mighty big celebration in heaven. My plans are to try to get there, but weather may not permit me to do so. Just know that our love is with all of you if I do not make it. Continue to pray for our family and never forget our genuine love for our sweet Mother. Love to all!

Heaven gained another angel. Who will have many beautiful stones in her crown. Margie was the most loving, compassionate and caring person that I have ever had the pleasure to love. Myself and my family are filled with emptiness, but peace comes because she now walks the streets of gold. My grandchildren are filled with sorrow, as are many, other children, for Margie loved them with all her heart. Loving her was so easy. She did for many and never complained and was all to happy to share her love. My cousin and BEST FRIEND will forever hold a hidden love in my heart. The joy that filled heaven had to be massive. Rest in love and peace!
