“ Marie always seemed to hold those around her hearts with a extra large caring hug. This little picture reminds me of Marie. I can never say enough how much her caring words an thoughts means to me, she made such a difference in my life, especially in my earlier years. My sympathies go out to the family, and all those who cared about Marie and I know there are many. I will love and hold Marie always in my heart and soul, she made such a positive difference in my life. Peace an Grace to all who will miss here presence here, I know I certainly will. I pray that when you remember Marie that it brings a smile to your face, she ALWAYS made smiling easier.

“ Sharon, Jay and Dale (all your families),

My deepest sympathies and prayers to each of you. Aunt Marie was beautiful inside and out, with a smile that was contagious and laughter that lit up a room. From her fun loving spirit to her amazing peanut butter balls, her memories live on and I am so grateful for each one. Til I see you again my "Aunt P-Ree".

*Love Always,
