“ Mark will truly be missed by all whose lives he touched. I worked with him at Citigroup and at JPMorgan Chase. He was fun loving and hard working. His exuberance for life and dedication to his career were outstanding. He was always there to work through any challenges with the team.

“ I am saddened to hear of Marks passing. I worked with him at Citicorp and remember him as a nice guy and so much fun to work with.
I will always remember him as that fun loving guy, always with a smile or a joke while always so professional about each project he was involved in.
I know he will be missed by many.

“ Just heard the news 10/03/2010 and my condolences to all his loved ones.
I was married to Mark's ex wife's cousin and that is how we became acquainted. Despite our spouses we connected and quickly became friends. The divorce from my ex made it impossible to stay in touch with Mark, but knowing that his marriage was doomed to failure as well I would occasionally look at the online divorce records for his name to show up and one day it did, 8 years later. When I called him you would have thought it was Christmas as excited as we were.
One year later he's gone and I am saddened beyond words.

“ Mark my friend-you will be sorely missed. I remember the times we had growing up-and you visiting our home to see my sister, Sheila. I pray that God will comfort your family at this sad time, and give them strength to carry on. You will be missed-for sure. Rest in Peace-dear friend-rest in Peace.

“ I met you through my husband Randy Phillips and I am so gratefull to have had the opportunity to come to know you and love you. You were a great friend I will always remember the many times you came to our home for cook outs , holiday dinners and all the good times we had. I will miss your smiley face and your loving friendship
