“ The Balm Of God's Love
by M.S.Lowndes

*When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares*

*But in the dark hours of the night
When there's nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It's there God's love can be found*

*It's like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part*

*We can rest secure in God's love
And know He's by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died*

*We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord*

*For He is always waiting there
Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside*

*Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone*

*He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own*

*He comforts us and strengthens us
And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night
We'll awake in His loving arms.*

Each of you are in our thoughts, hearts, and prayers at this time and always. Love, Granny Mae

“*Dear Stephanie & Mark,
I am speechless and typing with tears in my eyes. I cannot begin to imagine what you are feeling or experiencing. Please know I am thinking of you both and praying for you. When things get quiet I would like to bring the kids and spend some time with you all this fall.
The road ahead will be filled with lots of twists and turns and bumps, but know you are loved by your family, friends, and most importantly God.
May you be comforted by the prayers being lifted for you, embraced by your memories and held in love by your faith.
My deepest and heartfelt sympathies!
I love you both,
Daryl, Heather, Hatcher, Sawyer, and Macon-Rives*

“ To all the Family, Our condolences and prayers go out to you all. Mark will be missed by all. Virginia and I have special place in our heart for Mark. If it were not for Mark, we might not have been able to get married on 8/5/1989. We wanted to get married and I needed a house for us to live in and a job while I finished my last year of school in Blacksburg. Mark arranged for my employment with VPI Horticulture Dept and he also got us the house at Whitethorne to live in as part of my employment. We are forever grateful. In addition he took care of us both while we were there. Thank you Mark for all of the memories, we will truly miss you. With Love, The Warners

“ To all the family ~
It has been a so many years since I had seen Mark, but what a wonderful person he was. He had a laughter and mischief that would make you smile and laugh out loud. The world was a better place because of who he was. He always had an outgoing happy outlook on everything. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you and the impact of loosing such a special human being. May God bless you in the journey before you.

“ Do not stand at my grave and forever weep.
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and forever cry.
I am not there. I did not die.

To the White family: I am truly sorry for your loss and may the hopes and prayers of others sustain you during this time. Know you are loved and held in our prayers.

“ Mark will be sadly missed. We all enjoyed talking with him and seeing him. We both had the same house on the street and loved to pick on him about how ours was always more lit at Christmas time.....it won't be the same without seeing him or his truck down the street. My prayers go out to all his family especially Little Mark.

“ Miss Me, But Let Me Go
Author Unknown

*When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know.
Bear your sorrow in good deeds. Miss me, but let me go.*

Dear Stephanie, Mark, and all of Mark's family,

I wish I could be there with ya'll to lend my support. Please know that I am with you in everyway but physically. I pray that God will touch each of you in ways you never thought possible! I truly believe that many good things come about during our darkest times as long as we allow ourselves to see them. May ya'll be blessed with the many good memories you have shared during Mark's short but very meaningful life. Love, Aunt Susie

“ I came to know Moose in college. I was a student and he was working out at the Smihfield Farm at Va. Tech. College can be a tough time on a student fresh off the farm. Having people like Moose around made it better. I enjoyed knowing Moose and I am proud to say he was a friend of mine.

“ We were crushed to receive word of Mark's passing. Please know you are in our prayers and during your roughest, hardest hours think back on fond memories that only "Moose" could evoke. That should keep you busy for hours! Stay strong.
