“ I was 12 years old and my Mom and I went to church on a Sunday night. When Rev. Homes made the altar call I just got up and went. I remember those women with buns on their head surrounded me and laid hands on me in prayer. That night changed my life. She along with her husband were faithful to the call of ministry. We rode the bus that they sent for us every Sunday. Then, I felt the call of God on my life. Mom and I visited some years ago and Rev. Holmes laid hands on me and prayed for the ministry I had been called to. They were loving and kind and she always told me I was pretty. Mom, Betty and all the family are in heaven now. I'm sure everybody jumped for joy when Sister Holmes came through the gate. My love and heartfelt sympathy to the family.
