“ I will miss her especially taking Landon to the creek to throw rocks, she always loved to watch him and he always knew who she was. It will be very hard for him to understand why she ain't there no more, but I will tell him she is in heaven with papaw and they are watching him from above where the stars are. Also, loved going to her house for Christmas when I was growing up and she never judged me for mistakes I made throughout my life.
