“ I Have known Mary since birth,at 2 she was my little doll,she was so cute with her curls and sweet face,I called her my doll.As time went on we visited with family,here and there as they moved,as a young lady 10 -12 not sure,her and sibilings came to stay a few weeks with me during summer vacation,I took them to church,I introduced her to my LORD JESUS,she was so amazed,she asked does my mom know about this man called JESUS,at that time time in her moms life,I had to say,she does not know him as SAVIOR,she could not believe her mom didn't tell her about JESUS,as time went on her mom and most of her family have meet the SAVIOR,Mary had a heart of gold,she never meet a stranger, she has these 3 beautiful young men,I must say they love her dearly,they respect her and others,you can tell she raised them right.She asked GOD to let her see how the homeless lived,he answered that prayer and SHE lived among them for 2 yrs.She has brought joy to everyone she met.Mary,I see you up there now with your Mom,Tina,Uncle Curtis,all our family that has gone on,I will not say good-bye today just like all our phone calls ended,LATER MARY,I will join you when JESUS calls me or when he comes for us,then you can introduce me to him.You are greatly missed already,YOUR AUNT WANDA

“ I am saddened to learn of Mary's passing. I have fond memories of her...my favorite is sitting in my car with Mary Grace (I had just gotten my license and my parents had allowed me to drive it to a meeting for girls from church). A song came on and Mary Grace said, "Oh you have to turn that up and listen to it!" So we sat quietly and listened to the words of a particularly sweet love song. I looked over at Mary Grace and she had tears in her eyes. I asked her why and she said, "I want to find a love like that someday." I have always remembered that and every time I hear that song, I think of Mary Grace.

“ My favorite memory of my cousin Mary Grace, is the story she always told me about my first baptism. I was a little baby and my baptism was cancelled because of a snow storm. She wanted me to know Jesus, so she baptized me herself. In the back of the car with orange juice. I sure will miss her and her stories.

“ To my sweet boys,

I am so sorry that we lost your Mom. I have loved you guys since you were just little and wish I could hug you now and kiss away your tears like I used to then. Me and your Mom lived, loved, and raised our babies together for many years, she will always be in my heart. Kenny, you have your Moms beautiful smile and quirky funniness, Joey, you have her great capacity for loving. My baby Aaron, you have her strength and fortitude to push on through the toughest of life's lessons. I will always look at each of you and see a special part of your mother. I love you all so much! I know it is hard right now but time will dull the ache and you will start to remember only the good times. While I could never step into your Mom's shoes, know that if you need me, I am here and always will be.

*Love ya,
Cindy*

“ Mary Grace came into my life and became a wonderful friend. Words just can not describe the emptiness in my heart with her passing. She gave to everyone who needed something and would give you her last penny if you needed it. Her kind heart was a true blessing to all who she came into contact with. My heart is heavy with sadness but also with gladness. Mary Grace was a child of the Lord and I have absolutely no doubt that she is now with Jesus. No more pain and suffering. Mary Grace, you have been an inspiration to me. Love you beyond measure.
