“ My heart is broken for I have lost a friend that I have shared my life. We have shared our children, our sorrows, or worries, our happiest moments, family fun night, vacations, memories, hopes, dreams, desires, music, books, and regrets. Mary Ann gave me family here when I had none. She gave me a friendship that can never be replaced. She loved God, her family, her friends, good food, the beach, the perfect hair, a great new outfit, knowledge, and love. Mary Ann loved Laurann and Madison it was her itenity. Her parents and grandparents were the greatest people who ever lived. T and her boys brought her love and happiness. Jeff was her love and her protector. We will miss you everyday and I will never learn to live without you in my life. I will never be the same! Thank you for all you did for me and my children, but mostly thank you for loving us in return. To Laurann and Madison: Your mother lives on through your eyes and your hearts. You are both beautiful, intelligent, and kind young women. Craig and I will always be here for you with much love. Mary Ann, you touched my life in a way that has changed me forever. Thanks for sharing your laughter, tears, love and sweetness with me. Nee Nees. Forever- Sallee'

“ Dear Dave, Linda, and Terry,

I am so saddened to hear about Mary Ann. She was one of my dearest friends in elem. school and I have so many beautiful and fond memories: running through the camp in 5th grade, staying up all night at girl scout camp, playing softball together, and spending the night at your house and laughing late into the night and being reminded it was time to go to sleep by her dad. She has a special place in my heart and I take comfort in knowing that she is resting in a peaceful beautiful heaven.

“ The first time I saw Mary Ann she was standing at my front door holding a red poinsettia. My family and I were the new neighbors and she was the first one to welcome us. I remember thinking how beautiful, warm, and kind she was. She and her sister Teri would become my friends...much appreciated as I was new to Richlands. Mary Ann could uplift my spirits just by being in the same room with her. She was a special person from a special family. I pray that God will hold each of you close.

“ My fondest memories of of Mary Ann were at school functions. Because my boys and you girls were the same age. We spent many hours together. I have seen her cry, laugh, smile, even angry, but always with Love and Pride that only a mother has for her child. Girls always know she loved you both very much. Laurann, you will always have a special place in my heart. No matter where you are always rem. if you need Jerry or I we are only a phone call away. My prayer is for you and Madison to have the strength to get through this time of sorrow. May God watch over you both and may you be supportive of each other like Terry and Mary Ann were

“ To have a sister is a wonderful and priceless gift from heaven. I can't imagine your pain. But I know that Mary Ann knows that she was loved, I know that her parents and sister loved with an unconditional kind of love. The kindness and love of this family reaches far beyond the walls of their own homes. So I know that God will comfort and lift each of you up during this time. I pray that he give you strength and restoration. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Words can not begin to express the multitude of feelings that one experiences when thoughts of Mary Ann and her life begin to fill a person's memory. The loss of her is felt throughout but heaven now rejoices in her company. She was a beautiful creation of the Father and His love reflected through her life.

During these difficult times, He provides a "peace that surpasses all understanding". May the family find comfort in the many family and friends that will gather to celebrate the life of Mary Ann.

I love you all!

“ I know that there are no words to bring comfort at this time but remember that the love of family and friends will help with the needed strength you all need. Mary Ann was beautiful both inside and out. She had touched so many lives. Her very loving soul and spirit will forever live on. Always remember that I love each of you with all my heart. Phil:4:13, I can do all things through Christ who strengenth me. Rely on His strength to help during this time of great pain and sorrow. I will always remember Mary Ann's smile and her contagious laughter. Again, beautiful both inside and out. All of you are forever in my heart and prayers.
