“ I just was in the area for a college friend wedding and went by her house to tell her how much she imparted my life. Our time together was not very long. But she was my mentor and friend. I cried as soon as I reached her house empty. Mrs. Mary was a kind, thoughtful, and a strong Christian woman. We would sit under her carport on her swing and talk about girl stuff. I saw the white lattice still hung that I helped her to hang under the carport today. My condolences to the family for their loss of such an amazing soul. She will be with me forever.

“ When I was born, mom and dad (Mary Ruth's brother) said that Mary fell in love with me so much that they finally said she could have me! So every time I saw Mary Ruth, she would immediately say, "You're mine! Your mom and dad gave you to me."
Beautiful memories that I will treasure for a lifetime.
Your niece,
Connie Sue Smith Franklin
