“ Big Luc was a person I will never forget. As a kid, Jack, Lucy and Big Al welcomed me into their home. We had wonderful times playing monopoly and canasta and taking Sunday rides. I will also never forget her phenomenal cabbage roles. I tell people about those cabbage roles all the time. While I moved away from Tazewell a long time ago and have not had much contact with Jack and Lucy, they were a big influence on my life and I have great memories of Lucy. Jake, my prayers are with you.

She was a special person.

“ I just loved Lucille from the first time I met her. As the new preacher's wife I was eager to meet the congregation and start to bond with the members of Tazewell Christian Church. Lucille would always greet me with such joy to see me. When her speech became impaired she would still run and greet me as soon as she saw me enter the church. I wish I could have know her longer but God had other plans. Rest in peace my dear friend with the red hair and a brilliant twinkle in the eye. You will always be special to me. Linda Tiller.

Jack, I am so very sorry for your loss. Lucille was a special lady. She loved my boys as if they were hers.. She would have really loved the three little ladies that my Billy and Josie has adopted. They are very special little ladies. Billy's boys grew up to be very handsome young men. The youngest one, Adam, graduates this spring. He is talking about going into the service Ethan and Austin are grown up. Ethan, the oldest has a great job in Nashville. He had some problems with Cronns disease, but took the doctor's advice and tried a new medicine. He has gained weight and is a very stable young man. My Aaron is off to college this fall. He was accepted at Ferrum. I just wanted to give you an update. You and Lucille were always very special to boys and me. I will miss Lucille and I miss seeing and talking to you. I love you Jack. Take care of yourself and call me if you need anything. Your Christian buddy, Kay Allison.

Jack, the Lineberry's have you in our thoughts and prayers. Lucille was my first Sunday school teacher at Tazewell Christian Church as well as keep Beth, Ben & I happy and well fed at Tazewell Elementary. I think back on many great roll models from TCC. Lucille & you both are top of the list. My love to you! Sally Lineberry French
