“ Aunt Maudie was a humble, precious woman who gave her love and prayers to everyone she knew. I always teased her about looking just like momma. I told her momma would never be gone until she was. Now they're rejoicing together in Heaven.

Maudie is rejoicing with Jesus today. She was always one of my special friends. God bless and comfort Oliver and the rest of her family. She might be gone but NEVER forgotten.

Maudie was a great prayer warrior in our church and will be very sadly missed by all who came in contact with her. A beautiful God fearing woman that lived for her Lord with all that was within her. May God comfort all that knew her and we can be assured of that great reunion day in Heaven.
