“ She will be missed. I used to go to her house when I was a child and play in the yard and eat molasses with buttered biscuits and watch how to make sugar cane. To all her family may God grant you peace. She was a real sweet and loving lady. I loved her as my Aunt and I will miss her. Love to all her children. Jackie Cantrell

“ This was one of the sweetest , nicest women that GOD put on this earth . I have known her almost all my life . I remember when I started school , my dad said Mayola , look after my girl , and she did. We used to go to her house when they made molasses. I have so many good , fond memories of her and her family . I love them dearly. Heaven gained a precious Angel . Prayers going out for all her family . Love , Kay Helton Vencill
