“ I just read about Mearl. I am so sorry for your lose. She was a wonderful person and you should be proud. My mother and Father went to church with her for years and they loved her dearly and I know that she did them also as she did each and every one of her church family. I know that she will be deeply missed in her church.

“ I love Ms. Mearl so very much. I know that she will be sadly missed, but She is in the presence of the Almighty God, the one that she has pressed for for so long. She will be missed here, by those who loved and knew Ms. Mearl, but what a homecoming we all have to look forward to...
