“ My very belated condolences to the family. Being out of touch for so long, I only have occasional Internet searches as a means of discovering such news. Robin, I have pleasant memories of the fun times we shared in our childhood in Little Rock. So sorry that you lost your brother and your husband so close together.

“ My condolences to the family. Mike was the best man at my wedding. Whenever I think of him, I think of a smiling, laughing guy. He had a sharp sense of humor and I loved hearing Mike and my husband, David, bantering back and forth. The last time I heard from Mike, he spoke lovingly of his wife and children. May they find comfort in his love.
