“ *Scotty,
Never in my wildest imagination would I have thought I would be writing this. My heart is broken, my whole world is shattered and will never be the same. From the moment you came into this world you were special. You have brought such joy into my life as well as many others. You have given me two of the most precious grandsons and I thank you for that. I woke up on my birthday and immediately looked for a text from you as you always wanted to be the first to wish me a happy birthday, only there was not a wish this year and will never be one in the future. It is hard to put into words what I am feeling now but you know what is in my heart. I will always love you and we will be together again one day. Mom*

“ Michael, Scotty, Nonkie....Friend.
My heart is broken. You were the glue...no matter who was mad at who, you always made it better. Even if that meant your happiness. You always smiled, and I will never forget your smile. I remember the day we met, the fun times we had, our trip to Georgia, our days on the beach. I think I will miss our conversations in the garage the most. I know you will watch over your sons, your sister and your mom...I know they will be safe because you are making sure of that. Throw in a special prayer for the gift your family needs. I know you know what I am talking about. I love you kid!!! And I miss you dearly. I just wish we could have gotten together 1 last time.

“ Mike-----its so hard to believe that you are no longer here. It's not fair at all!! You or your family don't deserve it!! You, your mom and sister have been so important to my family for many years. When I ever thought of you guys I thought of you as the "trio". We had so many fun nights together. I will always hold those memories close to my heart. You will definitely never be forgotten. I will see you again someday!! XOXO

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Michael was a wonderful guy. I have known him for a long time. Even after the years of not talking to him when we did he was still the same nice guy he always was. He will always be remembered as a great friend, father, brother, son, and husband. Please accept my most sincere apologise for your loss.

“ Bubba, I don't understand why you are gone. It's not fair. No matter our differences, you were right around the corner and I knew you were safe. But now your gone and you're never coming back and I can't accept that. I know you were here last week in the middle of the night and it's ok. You just keep coming back as much as you want, just don't pull the same prank! I know you didn't like the recorded version of Amazing Grace, you made that clear! I hope the sung version was better for you. I hope that you have found dad and poppaw to show you the ropes and I'm sure you've got a lot of explaining to do as we all know you look slightly different! Pave the way and show everyone there that tats and piercings don't make the person. Watch over us, please help us find comfort and visit as often as you want. I need to feel you here because I'm so lost and so broken and I don't know how I'm supposed to get through this. It's been me you and mom for so long and we kinda don't know what to do without you...I love you bubba, I always have and always will...your sissy...

“ Mike, You were truly the most amazing friend someone could ask for. Your smile and the happiness in your eyes could turn anyones day around. You let all of us know life was going to be ok, even when we thought it was crashing down. The voice of reason to so many. So many good times shared, and even though your not here with us physically, we will share so many more my friend, because i know you are still with us. Thank you sweetie, for the pleasure of knowing you and being able to truly call you a friend. I promise you I will be here for your family if they need me. Rest easy sweetie, keep smiling and as always..."I'll see ya next time."
